Jonathan Ellerby PhD

Executive Coach & Consultant

Jonathan has been sought after as an executive coach, event keynote, and workshop facilitator by some of the world's most notable companies including Pepsico, Kraft, Nissan, Honda, the U.S.Navy, the U.S. Forest Service, Baxter Pharmaceuticals, the Canadian Correctional system and many more.

From his work with Grammy award-winning and Academy award-nominated celebrities and multinational millionaire and billionaire CEOs, to his presentations in the board rooms of Fortune 500 corporations and innovative leadership and consulting for 5-Star health resorts like Canyon Ranch and Miraval, Jonathan's work always proves his professional agility and capacity to meet leaders and organizations where they are at and then supporting them to take their next step in growth, performance and evolution.

With more than 25 years of professional experience, Jonathan is known for his lighthearted style, enthusiastic, infectious energy, and integrative, whole-person approach, translating his own diverse training and experience into practical peak performance strategies and personally relevant lessons for us all.

Jonathan has held numerous senior executive positions in a number of organizations internationally. Previously the Spiritual Program Director for the famed Canyon Ranch Resorts and the founding CEO for TAO Inspired Living, Mexico, Jonathan has also been a university lecturer and adjunct instructor at five universities, including the University of Arizona, where he was a regular guest instructor with the Andrew Weil Program for Integrative Medicine.
